6. NOMINATION AND REMUNERATION COMMITTEE:

The Company should have the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. The Charter of the Committee, inter alia, providing for the composition, scope of the Committee, and manner of conducting the meetings of the Committee, is provided as Annexure-A to this Policy. The Committee shall oversee the framing, review and implementation of compensation policy and work in close coordination with Risk Oversight Committee (ROC) of the company to achieve effective alignment between compensation and risks. The Committee shall also ensure that compensation levels are supported by the need to retain earnings of the company and the need to maintain adequate capital based on ICAAP. Further, the Committee shall ensure that 'fit and proper' status of proposed/existing directors and that there is no conflict of interest in appointment of directors on Board of the company, KMPs and senior management.

7. GUIDING PRINCIPLES FOR REMUNERATION AND OTHER TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT

- 7.1 Support for Strategic Objectives: Remuneration and reward frameworks and decisions shall be developed in a manner that is consistent with, and supports and reinforces the achievement of the Company's vision and strategy.
- 7.2 Transparency: The process of remuneration management shall be transparent and conducted in good faith.
- 7.3 Internal equity: The Company shall remunerate the Executives in terms of their roles within the organization. Positions shall be formally evaluated to determine their relative weight in relation to other positions within the Company.
- 7.4 External equity: The Company strives to pay an equitable remuneration, capable of attracting and retaining high quality personnel. Therefore, the Company will remain logically mindful of the ongoing need to attract and retain high quality people, and the influence of external remuneration pressures. Reference to external market norms will be made using appropriate market sources, including relevant and comparative survey data, as determined to have meaning to the Company's remuneration practices at that time.
- 7.5 Flexibility: Remuneration and reward offerings shall be sufficiently flexible to meet both the needs of individuals and those of the Company whilst complying with relevant tax and other relevant laws.
- 7.6 Performance-Driven Remuneration: The Company shall establish a culture of performance driven remuneration through the implementation of the Performance Incentive System.

7.7 Affordability and Sustainability: The Company shall ensure that remuneration is affordable on a sustainable basis.

7.8 Components and risk alignment:

The compensation packages of KMP and Senior Management Personnel of the Company will comprise of fixed, and variable pay components which will be aligned effectively with prudent risk taking to ensure that compensation is adjusted for all types of risks, the compensation outcomes are symmetric with risk outcomes, compensation pay-outs are sensitive to the time horizon of the risks, and the mix of cash, equity and other forms of compensation are consistent with risk alignment.

Composition of Fixed Pay:

All the fixed items of compensation, including the perquisites and contributions towards superannuation/retiral benefits, will form part of fixed pay. All perquisites that are reimbursable will be included in the fixed pay as per the monetary ceilings applicable for such on these reimbursements. Monetary equivalent of benefits of non-monetary nature (such as free furnished house, use of company car, etc.) will form part of fixed pay.

Principles for Variable Pay:

a) Composition of Variable Pay: -

The Company may offer variable pay in the form of share-linked instruments, or a mix of cash and share-linked instruments. The Company will ensure that the share-linked instruments are in conformity with relevant statutory provisions.

b) Proportion:

The Company will ensure that the proportion of variable pay in total compensation of KMPs/ Senior Management Personnel of the company is commensurate with their role and prudent risk-taking profile. The proportion of variable pay will be higher depending on the level of responsibility of the concerned KMP / Senior Management Personnel in the organisation's hierarchy. In case the variable pay contains share linked instruments, the Company will maintain a proper balance between cash payout and share-linked instruments. Further, basis the performance of the concerned individual, business unit and company wide level, the Company may reduce the variable pay to zero.

The Company shall define the performance measures and their relation to remuneration packages at the beginning of the performance measurement period to ensure that the employees perceive the incentive mechanism.

c) Deferral of variable pay:

The Board may decide to fix a deferral period for payment of variable pay which shall depend on factors such as performance assessment of concerned individuals, time horizon of the relevant risks, components of variable pay i.e. cash and non-cash. The deferral of variable pay in the form of share linked incentive shall be governed as per concerned share-linked incentive policy.

d) Control and assurance function personnel:

The KMPs and Senior Management Personnel of the company engaged in financial control, risk management, compliance and internal audit will be compensated on the basis of their key role in the Company vis-à-vis performance assessment indicators which will be independent of the business areas they oversee. The Company may offer higher proportion of their compensation in fixed mode and some proportion as determined by the NRC / Board in the form of variable pay to enable the Company to exercise the options of malus and/or clawback, when warranted.

- 7.9 Guaranteed bonus: The Company will not pay guaranteed bonus to KMPs and Senior Management. However, in the context of new hiring joining/sign-on bonus/ retention bonus could be considered, which will neither be considered part of fixed pay nor of variable pay.
- 7.10 Malus/Clawback: The deferred compensation mentioned above will be subject to malus/clawback arrangements in the event of subdued or negative financial performance of the company and/or the relevant line of business or employee misconduct in any year. The Company will provide to all KMPs and Senior Management eligible for variable pay, a representative set of situations along with the details of period including deferral and retention period, in which the Company may invoke the malus and clawback clauses on entire variable pay.
